

Lynne Speake

Mixed Media Artist

Originally a Painter, Lynne is directly influenced, inspired & excited by things unnoticed ... erosion, peeling paint, rusting metal, colour, texture & pattern.

Led by her materials ... it is the emotional journey of making that is the most important part, everything else is secondary ...

Lynne regularly exhibits in the UK, internationally & is the founder / creative director of @Precious.Collective; a group of around 360 Contemporary Art Jewellery makers from all parts of the world with an instagram following of over 19K
